

THREE EXPERTS FOR EACH SIDE

Justice Dowling Limits Number of Physicians in the Thaw Murder Trial.

CASE WILL END NEXT WEEK

WITNESSES FROM EUROPE TO ARRIVE TODAY.

New York, Jan. 23.—When an early adjournment of the Thaw trial was taken today in order to enable the attorneys for the defense to prepare their long hypothetical question covering all the evidence in the case, there seemed no longer any doubt that next week will bring the second hearing to a close. Justice Dowling has decided to limit each side to three expert witnesses, and two of the defense's trio were heard today as to the facts of the mental and physical examinations they made of Harry Thaw in the Tombs prison following his arrest for the killing of Stanford White.

Subpoenaed by Defense.

No experts for the state have yet appeared in the courtroom, and Mr. Jerome has not indicated the manner in which he will combat the testimony of the alienists in the employ of the defense. All of the doctors who served Mr. Jerome at the first hearing are under subpoena by the defense, and are paid experts, but as possible witnesses in rebuttal of any action the district attorney may take in rebutting the insanity plea that has been built up.

Mr. Jerome turned the tables yesterday upon Mrs. William Thaw by reading to the jury the affidavits she made a year ago to the lunacy commission which was testing her son's condition of mind, and the defense shows a seeming reversal of having the state's alienists admit upon the stand that they made affidavits a year ago in which they expressed the opinion that Harry Thaw was suffering from incurable paranoia and had been a victim of that mental malady for many years.

Expert Testimony Limited.

Justice Dowling held a conference with all the attorneys interested in the case before announcing his decision to limit the amount of expert testimony to be placed before the jury. Last year the defense offered six experts to answer the hypothetical question, but these were overruled, numerically at least, by the battery of nine brought forward by the district attorney. The effect of Justice Dowling's decision will be to materially shorten the case. The defense should conclude its evidence tomorrow, unless Mr. Jerome extends his cross-examination beyond the limit of his present intention.

Dr. Charles Wagner of Binghamton, N. Y., and Dr. B. D. Evans of Morris Plains, N. J., both superintendents of state institutions, were on the stand today. In detailing their conversations with Thaw in the Tombs, they brought out more clearly two points which were glossed over last year. The first of these was to the effect that Thaw had told them that in 1900 or 1901 he had been a guest of Stanford White at a dinner party in the Madison Square Garden tower. He had left early and been accused of breaking up the party. Some of the guests did not eat much, Thaw declared, and the young woman who sat next him declared the food was bad.

First Sight of Evelyn.

Thaw also told the physicians of the first time he saw Evelyn Nesbit. It was in 1901, in event of a theatre. "A pure looking girl," he declared, "she looked like a girl." He told her name was Nesbit and was, he said, "she belongs to Stanford White." Thaw managed afterward to meet the girl at an afternoon supper in company with several other chorus people. The European witnesses who are yet to be presented for the defense will arrive tomorrow morning on the steamer Adriatic.

The court session begins at 10 o'clock and every effort will be made to have them there at that time, as Mr. Littleton is anxious that their evidence should be in before he puts his hypothetical question. Besides Drs. Wagner and Evans, the question will be answered for the defense by Dr. Smith Ely Jelliffe of Columbia university, who also appeared at the last trial.

SUIT BROWN ONLY FOR ONE WEEK

Harriman Officials Insist Shop
Situation Is Only Temporary
Here and Elsewhere.

In support of the statement made by the Harriman officials concerning the closing of the local shops for one week it was announced yesterday that the same order went into effect at all of the big shops of the company in this country, including those located at Sparks, Nev., Pocatello, Ida., Salt Lake and Ogden.

Those who are wrong when you believe the shops will be closed for a longer period than one week, said a prominent official yesterday. The orders received here and which are the same as those received at the other points mentioned instruct us to close down for the last three days of this week and Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. There is simply no business. This and nothing more is the reason for the temporary shutdown.

Now then, that is official, and that's all there is to it.

The officials of the different departments gave out the same statements yesterday and in support of their contention pointed out the fact that the freight business has been reduced more than one-half from what it was at a corresponding period a year ago. Accordingly the number of freight crews have been reduced on the same basis. In the same connection, there is an abundance of motive power, many locomotives being forced to remain out of commission. At the same time a year ago the officials of the Harriman lines were at their wits' ends to provide sufficient motive power to take care of the large volume of business. Most of the work handled in the shops where the men were laid off on Wednesday comes from the locomotives, so that when the work for the engines drops off it immediately produces a decrease in the work at the shops. The report that freight business has fallen off is supported by the fact that at present all passenger trains are running on time.

The stagnation of business affects all lines running out of Ogden in a similar manner. The Rio Grande Western is holding its forces down to the smallest possible number. On the Salt Lake Division of the Southern Pacific the freight business is not required to handle the business number from two to four each way a day, and the same condition exists here and elsewhere.

Out of Ogden and Salt Lake about the only department that has not felt the effect of the depression of business is the passenger department. At both of these places the receipts have been normal, and it is said to be mainly due to the large number of foreigners who have been purchasing tickets to Europe. For a time the roads raised the rates in an effort to keep the foreigners who at the present time, however, the different lines are waging a war on this business. Local railroad men are of the opinion that the depression cannot last long and within a month at the latest the longest business will pick up until normal conditions exist again.

BOGUS MONEY IS CHEAP.

For $2.50 Fifty Dollars' Worth Can Be Had, Say Two Men Arrested.

What is supposed to be a plan to flood the country with fictitious bank notes of the Merchants & Planters' Bank of Georgia variety was unearthed here yesterday through the efforts of the postoffice officials. Alfred Franke and Charles Kelly, believed to be connected with the scheme, were arrested and the police are searching for a third person. A government officer is expected to reach Ogden soon.

According to the story told by the men under arrest, by sending $2.50 to Stevenson & Co., curio dealers, 29 Dearborn street, Chicago, they received in return bills of the Merchants & Planters' bank issue, of various denominations, amounting to $50. These bills were in halves, so that the purchaser could place his silk head between them and then dispose of them for the full amount named on the face.

In a letter accompanying a consignment of this bogus currency that arrived at the Ogden postoffice yesterday was the instruction: "We have any trouble in disposing of this, advise us and we will exchange it for other goods. In case the bills are returned do not tell or create them."

This is taken to indicate that Stevenson & Co. if such a firm exists, is conducting a large business in selling the bogus money.

The man who gave his name as Kelly inquired at the general delivery window for mail addressed to James Carter. A letter was found, there addressed to "James P. Carter," and the question arose as to whether it was intended for applicant Kelly, who insisted that it was, and offered to permit Assistant Postmaster Rufus A. Garner to open it. Carter refused, but insisted that Kelly open it himself. When this was done, the assistant postmaster saw the letter contained what appeared to be new bank bills. He demanded an examination and found that it was the bad currency. Kelly was detained until the arrival of the postmaster, James I. Plaster, who restored the bills to Kelly and asked whether or not Carter had called for his mail. He, too, was turned over to the officers. A third man, who accompanied Kelly when he first appeared at the postoffice, is being sought for, but as yet has not been located.

In addition to notifying the government officials the case also being referred to the Chicago police.

Sues for $20,000.

As administratrix of the estate of the late Edward C. Carter, Mrs. Elizabeth J. Carter yesterday filed an action in the second district court, in which she asks for $20,000 damages from the Utah Construction company. Carter received injuries from which he died while working in one of the Western Pacific tunnels in Plumas county, California, March 1 of last year. It is set forth in the complaint that the place where Carter was working was unsafe and that the company was negligent in that they failed to guard the tunnel and that the deceased had cautioned the defendants as to its unsafe condition.

Correspondence Regarding the Command of Hospital Ships
Now on File in House.

MUCH HISTORICAL MATTER

ANALYSIS OF THE LAW BEARING
UPON THE SUBJECT.

Washington, Jan. 23.—The speaker laid before the house of representatives today the response of Secretary of the Navy Metcalf to the resolution introduced by Representative Gill calling for the correspondence relative to the designation of staff officers to naval commands. The correspondence is voluminous, and includes Admiral Brownson's letter of resignation and the two letters of the president condemning the course he had pursued.

There was also a mass of historical matter showing the army practice in the matter of hospital ship commands and including orders issued in the navy department by Secretary Bonaparte, with copious endorsements by naval officers, all bearing upon this question.

Opinion of Admiral Converse.

An interesting paper among the latter is an endorsement by Admiral Converse, then chief of the navigation bureau, delivered June 14, 1904, upon the proposition which originated with the joint board of medical officers of the army and navy to place hospital ships under naval command. Admiral Converse recommended again the placing of hospital ships in commission in time of peace and also against the placing of medical officers in command, even with civilian crews.
